RASL/TASL ITINERARY PERU 2012

Day 1: Depart LAX--Arrive Lima (FRI)

Leave LAX at noon. Arrive Lima at midnight. Travel by bus to hotel. Breakfast 9 am and spend the day at the beach in Lima.

Day 2: Lima (SAT)

Saturday. Tour the city of Lima in the morning. Lima was the bastion of Spanish South America from its founding in 1535 until the independence of the South American republics in the early 19th century. See the Cathedral, where the remains of Francisco Pizarro are sealed in a wooden coffin and with its eerie burial crypts. Game 1 @ 3 pm. After the game, go to a show. --

Day 3: Lima-Arequipa (SUN)

Breakfast 8 am. Arrive in Arequipa 1 hour later. Check-in hotel. Visit Plaza de Armas. At night visit Tradiciones Arequipenas where we will dance. Tour Arequipa in the Chili River Valley and flanked by three snowcapped volcanoes: Misti, Chachani, and Pichu Pichu. Known as the "white city," Arequipa definitely does justice to its nickname, as its buildings are made of sillar, a white volcanic rock found throughout the area. The stone embellishes the facades of the city's homes and churches. Upon arrival, a city tour of Arequipa shows off the Plaza de Armas and the Cathedral before visiting the Jesuit Church, considered the best example of the mestizo baroque style. Continue to the residential districts of Yanahuara and Chilina, where you enjoy a magnificent view of Arequipa's countryside and the Mount Misti volcano. Handmade rugs, alpaca sweaters, and jewelry can be bought here at bargain prices. At the other end of the valley is Ollantaytambo. Here, some of the finest examples of Inca masonry can be seen.

Day 4: Arequipa (MON)

Visit Colca, one of the biggest canyons in the world. Colca Canyon is an impressive geological formation carved out by the river as it descended between the mountains (made of largely volcanic materials) over millions of years. More than twice as deep as the Grand Canyon, Colca Canyon is one of the deepest in the world. Observe the spectacular terracing, considered among the most extensive in southern Peru. These terraces, which allow cultivation and meticulously controlled irrigation of the steep slopes of the canyon, were built by Collagua and Cabana ethnic groups between the 9th and 14th centuries.

Day 5: Arequipa (TUE)

Relaxation day. Visit our good friend, Americo Escue's family & friends in Arequipa for a nice family dinner and experience the real life style of the people from Peru.

Day 6: Arequipa~Cusco (WED)

Tour of Arequipa, do some shopping in the morning and game # 2 in the afternoon. Leave to go to Cusco on a sleep bus. Trip will for 8 hours.

Day 7: Cusco (TH)

7 a.m. arrive in Cusco high in the Andes. Acclimatization day due to the high altitude. Touristic visits of Coricancha and travel around the city of Cusco plus shopping. Your guided tour visits the Santo Domingo Monastery, previously the Koricancha Temple, one of the most important temples devoted to worship of the sun. It is said it was covered in gold leaf and filled with golden representations of nature. In the Plaza de Armas, see the Cathedral before taking a short drive outside the city to the ruins of Sacsayhuaman with its intricate stone walls, amphitheatre of Kenko, and the Red Fortress of Puca Pucara.

Day 8: Machu-Pichu (FRI)

Board a train bound for Machu Picchu and cut a path through the Sacred Valley to this "Lost City of the Incas," discovered by American explorer Hiram Bingham in 1911. On a guided tour, explore this intact fortress with its temple remains, holy houses, and mile-long aqueduct. For hikers, a brisk one-hour walk leads to the Sun Gate, the ancient entrance used by the Incas, or hike to the peak of Huayna Picchu.

Day 9: Cusco (SAT)

Return to Cusco, where your local host will recommend options for your free time. Perhaps visit the Inca Museum or wander through the artisan district of San Blas. Game # 3 in Cusco against the local team in the early evening.

Day 10: Calca (Valle Sagrado de los Incas) (SUN)

Game # 4. Proceed to Condors' Cross, an observation point where you have the possibility of observing the flight of the condor in its native habitat. From here, also enjoy the impressive Colca Canyon panorama. Next, visit the towns of Yanque, Maca, Achoma, and Pinchollo.
